the hands of the Tars last week at Norfolk, the Colts yesterday afternoon jumped on the offerings of Gunboat Cochran at Broad Street Park for a total of fifteen runs and an equal num-total of fifteen runs and an equal number of hits, while the best the Tars could put over was five taillies on twelve hits.

The Norfolk nine was minus the services of Hopkins. The left fielder started from home in an automobile, and should have been on the field in time for the game. Manager Pressly had to rearrange his line-up, and placed Stewart at first, while he took care of the left garden. When Pressly found Hopkins missing he said to found Hopkins missing he said to Owner Walker that he Pressly, was some fielder, and that Stewart was some judgment of his own abilities, as sev-eral line drives that should have been easy outs went for three bases on account of his misjudging the same. Colts Take the Lend.

After the Tars had scored a run in the opening session on a base on balls to Stein, followed by a double by Thrasher, the Colts came back and sent Thrasher, the Colts came back and sent a pair over on a pass to Schweitzer, Newton's single, Rohe's force hit that got Newton on second and two singles by Grey and Snyder. The Colts sent two more over in the third on an error by Cochran and a pass, followed by a single and a sacrifice fly. Ten men faced Cochran in the fourth, and seven large and julcy runs resulted from the use of the war clubs.

To tighten up the game the Colts annexed three tallies in the sixth and another in the seventh session.

The Tars scored two additional runs in the third, and one each in the eighth in the third, and one each in the eighth and ninth innings.

Every member of the local team in the line-up secured a run, while hits went to all excepting George Rohe. Dolly Grey was the bright light with the willow, he securing four bingles, one, a three bagger, with the bases loaded being largely responsible for the Colts lead in the fourth session.

Enyder also showed class with the stick by getting three safeties for his afternoon's work.

ERRORS CAUSE THE GOOBERS TO LOSE GAME

Roanoke Tigers Take Opener by Close Score—Moran Fielded His Position in a Sensational Manner.

PETERSBURG, VA. August 31.—Petersburg played listless ball this afternoon, and as the result Roanoke won easily. Rice and Efird were in the box for their respective teams, and both pitched in fine style. Rice being hit a double and five singles, but errors by his team being responsible for two of the visitors' runs.

Efird was hit for a double and four singles, but his club played an errorless game, the fielding of Poh and Irmscher being classy. Agnew, Barnett and Gross furnished the stick work of the game, and Moran did sensational work in left field for the visitors, robbing the locals of three hits. The score:
